

Have Your Pets Groomed at Home with awesomepawsome pet grooming

Say your dog or cat badly needs a trim, and the most feasible option for is to visit the nearest pet grooming station in your locality. Though there might be good and reputable grooming stations near you, the inconvenience and the stress it brings is one thing that hinders pet owners from proceeding with the visit.

Wouldnt it be a breeze to have your pet groomed right within the comforts of your home? It will be such a turning point in your life as a fur parent that you wouldnt want it any other way after trying out such a service.

This might not be the trend in most developed countries yet, but in Singapore, awesomepawsome pet grooming is the first of its kind to bring professional pet grooming services within the comforts of your home. All you have to do is book your appointment with them over the phone, and wait for the professional team to arrive at your doorstep.

If you are still not convinced with availing their services, take a look at the advantages of hiring their services.

1. Professionally Recognized by Authorities

Awesome Pawsome wouldnt be basking in all this glory if they do not have the bragging rights to stake their claim. The groomers have graduated from the reputable Art of Pet Grooming School and took their apprenticeship under the renowned KKF Master Groomer Park Sang Huns tutelage. They also have various experiences with known pet shops in Singapore, and have even been awarded the C Class Qualification in SKC. Whats more, they have taken the Pet Safety Programme with Dr. Robin Au as well.

With all these credentials, it is but right that they have been recognized as the best pet grooming company for 2019 in Singapore Business Times.

2. Convenience

No more trips to the pet salon or day-long waits just to avail of professional pet grooming services. With Awesome Pawsome, convenience and personalized care is ensured for each pet customer they are catering. Simply book a schedule with them at your most convenient time, and they will do the rest for you.

3. Reduced Stress for your Pets

Just like toddlers, pets also experience what we call separation anxiety every time we leave them in an unfamiliar environment and situation. Having a mobile pet grooming salon at your service will ultimately remove this stress factor in them. Plus, the groomers will go the extra mile to build a rapport with your pet to create a more personalized and relaxed grooming experience for them.

4. Reduced Risk for your Pets

Having your pets groomed within the confines of your home will ultimately diminish their risk of contracting parasites or illnesses from other pets or having contact with aggressive pets. Also, the groomers ensure that the tools they use are disinfected every after use to prevent transmission of diseases from one pet to another.

Now, did those benefits mentioned above have you convinced to book an appointment now? If not, then try looking at the testimonials, and see for yourself the good reviews this grooming salon has from their satisfied clients.
